III. Reading

Once upon a time four little rabbits, Flopsy, Mopsy, Cottontail and Peter, lived with their mother, Mrs Rabbit, in the forest. They spent most of their days outside playing in the nearby fields. However, there was one place that their mother told them to avoid. It was Mr McGregor's garden.

One day when old Mrs Rabbit took a basket and went to the bakery to the city, the little rabbits were alone at home. Flopsy, Mopsy, and Cottontail, who were good little bunnies, decided to leave their house and gather blackberries; but Peter, who was very naughty, ran into Mr McGregor's garden!

When he arrived there, Peter started his feast. He ate some lettuce leaves and radishes. Suddenly, he noticed Mr McGregor. When Mrs McGregor saw him, he jumped up and ran after Peter, waving a rake and calling out, -Stop this thief! His wife heard it and started looking for the rabbit.

Peter did not know what to do, so he hid in the tool shed.

Mr McGregor was sure that Peter was in the shed, so he went inside. When Peter heard his footsteps, he decided to jump out of a window. Fortunately, the window was too small for Mr McGregor. He was also tired of running after Peter. He went back to his work.

Peter was safe. He sat down to rest; he was out of breath and trembling with fright.
